GOVERNMENT 1884

NOTE

ON THE

ADMINISTRATION OF CIVIL JUSTICE

IN THE

NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES

DURING THE CALENDAR YEAR 1883.

I.—Courts subordinate to the High Court.

(a) Original suits.

1. Original suits instituted and disposed of in these Courts during 1883, as compared with 1882, were as follows :—

		Instituted.	Disposed of.
1882	... ...	87,046	86,956
1883	... ...	87,759	89,201
	Increase ...	713	2,245

While thus there has been a slight increase in institutions, the work done is considerably more, which is creditable to these Courts.

2. The increase and decrease in the number of suits instituted in the different districts was as follows :—

Increase.		Decrease.
Sahâranpur	604	Ghazipur	412
Shahjahânpur	512	Gorakhpur	313
Azamgarh	504	Mainpuri	227
Jhânsi	376	Aligarh	204
Bareilly	163	Moradabad	202
Allahabad	144	Farukhabad	167
Benares	71	Agra	159
Jaunpur	57	Mirzapur	91
Meerut	55	Cawnpore	11
Banda	13		1,776
	2,489
	1,776
	713

3. The Judge of Sahâranpur has offered no explanation of the increase in his district, except that 278 of the 604 cases were filed in the Dehra Small Cause Court. The Judge of Shahjahânpur attributes the increase in his district to the good harvest, while the increase in Azamgarh is assigned to the fact that the period of limitation (12 years) from the close of the last settlement was about to expire. In Jhansi, where there has also been an increase, it seems doubtful whether Act XVI. of 1882 has had much effect on the work of the ordinary Civil Courts.

4. No explanation is offered of the decrease in Ghâzipur or Gorakhpur, but the Judge of Mainpuri attributes the decrease in his district, which was chiefly in the Court of the Munsif of Mainpuri, to that officer's unpopularity, want of temper, and summary method of working. The explanation seems doubtful. Litigants do not readily give up their claims or pleaders their fees.

5. The state of the pending files has remained much the same, there being, however, on the whole a decrease of arrears amounting to 162 cases, which is satisfactory.

There was an increase of arrears chiefly in the following districts:—

Azamgarh	358
Meerut	152
Allahabad	131
Mirzapur	101

while in the following there has been a considerable decrease :—

Jaunpur	301
Saháranpur	199
Gházipur	139
Benares	122
Gorakhpur	104

6. The increase in Azamgarh is accounted for by the large number of institutions, while the decrease in both Jaunpur and Saháranpur is very creditable to the subordinate Courts, there having been an increase in institutions in both districts. In Mirzapur, however, which is a light district, the increase is not satisfactory, but was apparently due to a constant change of Munsifs, consequent on the gradual passage of Munshi Madho Lal from the position of Munsif to that of Subordinate Judge.

7. There was little change on the whole in the description of suits filed ; the only difference being that while there were fewer suits based on contract, there was otherwise a general increase in the number of suits for money or moveables, and as regards suits for title, &c., there was a falling off in suits for declaratory decrees, and an increase in suits to declare and establish rights to real property and for dissolution of partnership.

8. There has been a material increase in the value of suits instituted, the figures being Rs. 5,22,79,343 for 1883, as against Rs. 2,05,30,074 for 1882. The increase took place chiefly in the Courts of Subordinate Judges, though there was also a considerable increase in Small Cause Courts, while the value of suits in Munsifs' Courts fell considerably.

9. The percentage of contested suits to suits otherwise disposed of remained the same—viz., 31·3.

10. The average duration of contested suits was 66 days against 62 in the previous year, and of uncontested suits 28 days against 26 in the previous year. The increase took place in both Munsifs' and Subordinate Judges' Courts, but there has been a marked decrease in duration in the Courts of Judges.

(b) Miscellaneous cases (Judicial).

11. There has again been an increase this year in miscellaneous cases (judicial), the number for disposal having risen from 18,898 to 20,684. The duration of such cases remained the same, 35 days.

12. Among these cases the following were the most important and numerous :—

1. Applications for insolvency	416
2. Commissions to other Courts	367
3. Applications in formâ pauperis	541
4. Criminal proceedings	259
5. Cases regarding property of intestates (s. 7, Regn. V., 1799) ...	193
6. Applications for redemption (Regn. I., 1798)	339
7. Applications for foreclosure (Regn. XVII., 1806)	438
8. Applications for certificates of administration (Act XL., 1858) ...	812
9. Other applications (Act XL., 1858)	497
10. Applications for certificates (Act XXVII., 1860)	572
11. Applications regarding lunatics (Act XXXV., 1858)	47
12. Applications regarding minors (Act IX., 1861)	24
13. Applications for winding up firms (s. 265, Contract Act)	19
14. References by Collectors (s. 322c. of C.P.C.)	65

13. There has been a general falling off in the number of the majority of these classes of cases. There was, however, a slight increase under heads 1 and 2, and under heads 3 and 6 the numbers have risen from 402 and 111 to 541 and 339 respectively.

14. Applications for insolvency were most numerous in Agra and Meerut. Of the 416 for disposal, 106 were granted, 91 were rejected, 149 were transferred or not prosecuted, and 70 remained pending at the close of the year. It is satisfactory to note that this year some progress was made in realising assets and satisfying claims. Rs. 27,872 out of Rs. 29,218 realized were paid away, and out of Rs. 72,928 of claims admitted Rs. 27,639 were satisfied.

15. Seventy-two of the 367 commissions were issued in Mirzapur.

16. Applications to sue in formâ pauperis were highest in Gorakhpur, Jaunpur, and Cawnpore.

17. Contempts of Court seem to have been most numerous in Bareilly and Moradabad.

18. In Gorakhpur there were 138 and 131 applications by mortgagors for redemption and by mortgagees for foreclosure respectively. Of the former there were also 83 in Jaunpur, and of the latter 80 in Cawnpore, 53 in Azamgarh, and 48 in Meerut.

19. Applications for certificates of administration under Act XL. of 1858 were most numerous in Aligarh, Gorakhpur, Meerut, and Saharanpur; 554 were granted, and the Court fees paid on them amounted to Rs. 11,045.

20. Of other applications under the same Act there were 86 in Cawnpore and 65 in Aligarh.

21. Of the applications made under Act XXVII. of 1860, 136 belonged to the Cawnpore district. The Court fees paid on the whole number of such applications amounted to Rs. 25,259.

22. Of the 65 references under section 322c. of the Code, 50 were made by the Collector of Gorakhpur.

(c) Appeals from decrees.

23. The number of such appeals before the Courts subordinate to the High Court rose in 1883 to 12,670 from 11,315. Of these 2,602 were pending from 1882, 9,936 were newly instituted, and 132 were remands under section 562, reviews under section 626, and revivals under sections 558 and 560 of the Code.

24. Of the 10,068 appeals instituted and received under these sections the details were—

From Rent Courts	690
From Munsifs	8,146
From Sub-Judges	1,232

25. Of the 12,670 appeals for disposal 9,598 were disposed of as follows:—

By District Judges	3,837
„ Sub-Judges and Small Cause Court Judges exercising powers under section 51, Act XI. of 1865	5,523
„ Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners, Jhánsi ...	236

26. The number of pending appeals rose from 2,602 at the commencement to 3,072 at the close of the year. Arrears of appeals were only lighter in 7 districts out of 21, viz., Sháhjahánpur, Meerut, Mainpuri, Agra, Mirzapur, Bánda, and Bareilly; while in the following districts there was a considerable increase:—

District.	Increase.
Aligarh	117
Moradabad	94
Gorakhpur	88
Cawnpore	77
Azamgarh	73

There has been an increase in the number of appeals pending over three months in the Courts of both Sub-Judges and Judges. The figures are—

Sub-Judges ...	Number in 1883		244
	Ditto 1882		202
	Increase		42
Judges ...	Number in 1883		929
	Ditto 1882		751
	Increase		178

The Aligarh returns alone show 361 appeals of more than three months' duration, and many of these had been more than six months pending.

27. The average duration of appeals has risen from 66 to 68 days, the most notable increase, however, being in the case of the Commissioner of Jhánsi, for whose Court the figures have risen from 42 to 64 days.

28. The result of those appeals that were disposed of was that decisions were upheld in 62, modified in 13, reversed in 20, and remanded in 5 per cent. of the cases.

29. Objections under section 561 of the Code show a slight increase of 71.

(d.) Miscellaneous appeals (Judicial).

30. The number of such appeals for disposal rose from 810 to 933. In the previous year, however, the number had been fewer. The details of the 712 appeals disposed of were as follows :—

Subordinate Judge, Agra	32
Judges	657
Commissioner, Jhánsi	23

So that the arrears at the close of the year remained much the same. The average duration for the Courts of Judges and the Commissioner of Jhánsi rose from 88 to 107 and 18 to 40 days respectively, and thus the average duration for the provinces was 101 as compared with 83 days for the previous year. The duration rose in 1882 by 22 days, and it having thus again risen this year by 18 days, the attention of lower appellate Courts will now be called to the matter, and it will be pointed out to them that more expeditiousness in the disposal of miscellaneous appeals is called for. In two districts alone the arrears were heavy—Aligarh and Gorakhpur. In both a large proportion of the arrears were pending for more than three months, and in the former the average duration reached the high figure of 294 days. In Gorakhpur the Sub-Judge seems to have had transferred to his file 40 such appeals and not disposed of any.

(e) Execution of decrees.

31. The number of applications for execution of decree shows again an increase : it was 111,275 against 109,948 for 1882.

32. Out of 7,179 decrees transferred, 4,943 were transferred to Collectors under section 320 of the Code (i.e., 97 more than in 1882), and in considering the figures entered in columns 4—6 of Judicial Statement 11, it must be borne in mind that most probably the result of Collectors' proceedings would be satisfaction of decree at least in part. The districts in which the largest numbers of such appeals were transferred were—

Gorakhpur	617
Moradabad	579
Shahjahanpur	532
Agra	494
Meerut	376
Saháranpur	367
Mainpuri	354
Aligarh	318
Azamgarh	296

33. In 607 cases were attachments issued under section 268 of the Code in respect of the salaries of judgment-debtors ; 422 of these judgment-debtors were public officers and 185 railway servants. This shows a decrease on last year's figures, which showed 1,150 such attachments, but a decrease was anticipated (see para. 12 of the note on last year's returns).

(f) Witnesses.

34. The number of witnesses summoned in original suits was 213,329, or 14,898 in excess of the number for 1882; while the number of parties and witnesses examined also shows an increase of 4,499, the figures being 146,221 and 141,732 respectively. The sum paid to witnesses was Rs. 1,01,504, or Rs. 2,563 less than in 1882, and this decrease is again doubtless due to the operation of the new rules contained in Circular Order No. 2 of 1882, as was noticed last year. The average summoned has fallen from 9 annas to 7 annas odd.

II.—High Court.

35. The following figures show the number of institutions and disposals and the state of the pending files in the High Court:—

		Instituted.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1	Original suits	1	1	7
2	Miscellaneous cases (judicial) ...	383	410	90
3	First appeals in suits	149	148	197
4	Second appeals in suits	1 804	1,712	1,173
5	Appeals under section 10, Letters Patent	...	2	...
6	First appeals from orders ...	175	217	69
7	Second appeals from orders ...	87	93	27

36. There was an increase in institutions of 45 and 349 cases under heads 2 and 4 respectively. Under each of the other heads there was a slight decrease. The pending files show an increase only under head 4, and only to the extent of 92 cases, which may be considered satisfactory.

37. The average duration of cases fell under head 2 from 121 to 117, under head 3 from 407 to 399, under head 4 from 228 to 177, under head 5 from 148 to 145, and under head 6 from 143 to 135 days respectively in contested cases.

38. There were 348 applications that records might be called for under section 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure during 1883, and in 84 cases the High Court admitted applications for review of its own judgments.

III.—General.

(a) Income.

39. The total income of the Civil Courts of these provinces during 1883 shows an increase of Rs. 14,183, the figures being Rs. 22,73,952 for 1883, as against Rs 22,59,769 for 1882.

40 There was an increase in the High Court alone of Rs. 26,103 under the head of "Court fees," which shows that the value of appeals preferred during the year was higher.

41. There was a large increase in Jhánsi under the head of "Duty and penalties on instrument not duly stamped," the receipts having risen from Rs. 182-10-0 to Rs. 2,421-15-0. This shows that the Courts in this non-regulation province have scrutinized with care all documents coming before them. The increase, however, took place chiefly in the Court of the Deputy Commissioner of Jhánsi, Mr. Williams, who is to be commended for his zeal and activity in this respect.

42. It is only in respect of the income from Court fees and such duties and penalties that the figures for 1883 show an increase on those of the preceding year. The other heads of income all show a falling off more or less.

43. Under the head of "Fines" the only marked decrease was in Allahabad, where the income fell from Rs. 886 to Rs. 70.

44. The income from Amins' fees has again fallen off, the decrease amounting to Rs. 5,033. The reason of this was explained last year (see para. 17 of the note on the administration of Civil Justice for 1882).

45. Similarly there has been a falling off of Rs. 3,362 under the head of "Process fees" and this is also doubtless due to the introduction under Circular Order No. 14 of 1881 of the new scale of fees, which are now levied at uniform rates, irrespective of distance. There has been a gradual falling off under this head in Courts subordinate to the High Court, as the following figures will show :—

		Rs.
Receipts for	1881	3,66,977
„ „	1882	3,57,272
„ „	1883	3,52,773

In the High Court there has this year been an increase under this head of Rs. 1,137, due evidently to the increase in the number of appeals filed.

46. There has been little variation in the income of the Judicial Record Fund. The only marked cases are that in Azamgarh the receipts rose by Rs. 1,257, while in Allahabad and the High Court they fell by Rs. 1,346 and Rs. 1,224 respectively.

47. Under the head "Sale proceeds of intestate property" there has been a decrease of Rs. 2,206. The falling off has been general, and the only districts which show any considerable increase are Bánda, Benares, and Gházipur.

(b) Expenditure.

48. Expenditure has remained much the same. There is a slight increase on the total expenditure of Rs. 186 which requires no explanation.

49. Bánda alone of the districts shows a deficit of Rs. 3,735 ; but the net result for the provinces, after deducting the total expense from the total income, is a gain to Government of Rs. 6,65,206-1-11, and thus an increase of Rs. 13,997-9-7 on last year's surplus of Rs. 6,51,208-8-4.
